

The Metro NY Labor Communications Council presents

The War on Labor in the Courts and State Legislatures

Thursday, October 16 – 6 p.m.

National Writers Union
256 West 38th Street, 12th Floor
(betw. 7th and 8th Aves.) Manhattan

A panel featuring

STANLEY ARONOWITZ, Distinguished Professor
CUNY Graduate Center

FRANK DEALE, Professor
CUNY School of Law

JILL FURILLO, Executive Director
New York State Nurses Association

HENRY GARRIDO, Associate Director
District Council 37, AFSCME

MODERATOR

TIMOTHY SHEARD
New York Chapter Chair, National Writers Union

ORGANIZED LABOR is under attack around the country...
State legislatures are gutting collective bargaining rights...
Right-wing interests are using the courts to try to cripple unions financially....Teacher tenure is under fire....

The forum will look at these threats and fight-back actions:
mass organizing, making the right to form a union a civil right, progressive political action and mobilizing members.

Refreshments will be served at the panel.
There is no charge.

Metro NY
Labor Communications
Council